MCC Partners with Diversity Lab for Mansfield Rule Certification

September 17, 2020

Meunier Carlin & Curfman LLC is pleased to announce that it is one of twenty-three firms piloting the Midsize Firm Mansfield Rule Certification for firms with 25 to 99 attorneys.

Named after the first woman admitted to practice in the US, the Mansfield Rule requires law firms take measurable steps for increasing the representation of historically underrepresented lawyers in leadership. The certification requires that 30% or more of people that the firm considers for hiring, equity partner, managing partner, other firm governance roles, and in teams working to develop business with current and potential clients be from underrepresented groups.

MCC is committed to diversity, inclusion and equity (“DEI”) at all levels. The firm is actively engaging in several initiatives for promoting DEI at the firm, including workshops and weekly meetings.
